

Identifying Problem Gamblers in Gambling Venues

Commissioned for:

The Ministerial Council on Gambling

Prepared by:

Dr. Paul Delfabbro

Dr. Alexandra Osborn

University of Adelaide

Dr. Maurice Neville

Dr. Louise Skelt

University of Canberra

Professor Jan McMillen

Funded by the State and Territory Governments and the Australian Government

Published on behalf of Gambling Research Australia

by the Office of Gaming and Racing

Department of Justice Melbourne Victoria Australia

November 2007

ISBN: 978-1-921028-57-1

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY	8
Chapter 1: Introduction	21
1. Project Background.....	21
1.1 The Role of the Ministerial Council	21
1.2 Industry ‘Duty of Care’ and Codes of Practice: An Overview	21
1.3 Identifying Problem Gamblers as an Early-Intervention Strategy.....	23
1.4 Terms of Reference.....	25
1.5 Outline of the Literature Review	26
1.6 Outline of the Empirical Research.....	27
1.7 Chapter Structure for Empirical Research	30
Chapter 2: Problem gambler identification and staff training in current national and international responsible gambling policies and practices	31
2.0 Chapter Overview	31
2.1 Gambling in Australia: A Brief Summary	31
2.1.1 Types of Gambling and Gambling Venues.....	31
2.1.2 Gambling Expenditure	33
2.1.3 Gambling Involvement	36
2.1.4 Problem gambling rates	37
2.2 Public Health, Harm Minimisation and Responsible Gambling.....	38
2.3 The Role of Problem Gambler Identification and Related Staff Training in Current Responsible Gambling Provisions.....	41
2.3.1 Levels of Influence: Regulation and Codes of Practice.....	41
2.4 Responsible Gambling in Australia	44
2.4.1 National Responsible Gambling Frameworks	44
2.4.2 National Responsible Gambling Training Modules	45
2.4.3 New South Wales Responsible Gambling Measures.....	47
2.4.4 Responsible Gambling Provisions in Queensland	50
2.4.5 Victorian Responsible Gambling Provisions	53
2.4.6 South Australian Responsible Gambling Provisions	55
2.4.7 Responsible Gambling in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT).....	58
2.4.8 Responsible Gambling Provisions in Western Australia	60

2.4.9 Responsible Gambling Provisions in Tasmania	61
2.4.10 Responsible Gambling Provisions in the Northern Territory	62
2.5 Summary and Comparison of the Different States /Territories	63
2.6 International Responsible Gambling Initiatives	65
2.6.1 New Zealand	65
2.6.2 Responsible Gambling Initiatives in Canada	68
2.6.3 Responsible Gambling Training and Initiatives in the United States	70
2.6.4 Responsible Gambling in Europe	71
2.7 Summary of International Programs.....	74
Chapter 3: The Nature of problem gambling and visible indicators within venues. 75
3.1 Overview.....	75
3.2 Theoretical Approaches to Conceptualizing and Defining Problem Gambling	76
3.2.1 Medical and Mental Illness Approaches.....	76
3.2.2 Traditional Addiction Models.....	77
3.2.3 Need State/Psychological Dependence Models.....	78
3.2.4 Behavioural Approaches.....	78
3.2.5 Cognitive Approach.....	80
3.2.6 Sociological Approach.....	81
3.2.7 Continuum Approach.....	82
3.2.8 Harm Approach.....	83
3.2.8.1 Personal Harm.....	83
3.2.8.2 Interpersonal Harm	84
3.2.8.3 Vocational Harm.....	84
3.2.8.4 Legal Impacts.....	85
3.2.8.5 Financial Impacts.....	85
3.3 Psychometric and Psychiatric Indicators of Problem Gambling	86
3.4 Industry and Peak Body Definitions of Problem Gambling.....	89
3.5 Studies of Problem gambling indicators.....	90
3.6 Demographic and Cultural Considerations.....	97
3.7 Logistical Issues: Venue Organization and the Variability of Gambling.....	98
3.8 Deliberate concealment.....	99

3.9 Insights from Related Research Areas.....	100
3.9.1 Research into Retail Crime	100
3.9.2 Studies of Gesture Recognition	102
3.10 Final Methodological Considerations and Recommendations	105
3.11 Summary	106
Chapter 4: Survey of Industry Staff and Problem Gambling Counsellors	108
4.1 Overview.....	108
4.2 Venue Staff Sample	108
4.3 Survey Content: Venue staff survey	109
4.4 Sampling Methodology.....	111
4.5 Work Status and Experience.....	112
4.6 Manager Attitudes towards Patron Contact.....	114
4.7 Details of Staff Training Received	114
4.8 Perceived Difficulties and Barriers to Identifying Problem Gamblers.....	115
4.9 Experiences in Identifying Problem Gamblers	117
4.9.1 Emotional Reactions	118
4.9.2 Excessive Levels of Involvement	119
4.9.3 Searching for Money/ Chasing Losses	119
4.9.4 Irrational Behaviours or Attributions of Blame	120
4.10 Indicators for Confirmed Problem Gamblers	121
4.11 Endorsement of Identified Indicators and Behaviours	122
4.12 Other Indicators to Consider.....	127
4.13 Beliefs about the Identification of Problem Gamblers in Venues	129
4.14 Venue Staff Views Concerning Appropriate Interventions.....	130
4.15. Personal Interventions by Venue Staff	130
4.15.1 No action or stop serving/barring	131
4.15.2 Refer to Management.....	132
4.16 Survey of Problem Gambling Counsellors	133
4.17 Sample Characteristics.....	134
4.18 Sampling Methodology.....	134
4.19 Work Status and Experience.....	135

4.20 Endorsement of Identified Indicators and Behaviours	136
4.21 Other Indicators to Consider.....	141
4.22 Beliefs about the Identification of Problem Gamblers in Venues	142
4.23 Views Concerning Appropriate Interventions	143
4.23.1 Personal Interventions by Venue Staff	143
4.23.2 Refer to Management.....	144
4.24 Discussion and Conclusions	146
Chapter 5: Survey of Problem Gamblers and Non-Problem Gamblers in the Community and Gambling Venues	149
5.1 Overview.....	149
5.2. Selection of Indicators	150
5.2.1 Sampling Strategy	150
5.3 Sampling Methodology.....	151
5.3.1 Venue Survey: Sampling	151
5.3.2 Community Survey: Sampling.....	152
5.4 Survey Measures.....	153
5.5 Sample Characteristics (written up for both samples).....	157
5.5.1 Demographic Characteristics	157
5.5.2 Gambling Behaviour	159
5.5.3 Demographic Predictors of Gambling Involvement	160
5.5.4 Problem Gambling	161
5.5.5 Demographic Differences in Problem Gambling.....	162
5.5.6 Problem gambling and participation rates	162
5.6 Prevalence of Visible Indicators and Signs	165
5.6.1 Frequency, Duration and Intensity Indicators.....	165
5.6.2 Indicators of Impaired Choice or Control.....	168
5.6.3 Social Indicators of Problem Gambling.....	171
5.6.4 Indicators related to Raising Funds or Chasing Behaviour.....	173
5.6.4 Emotional and Physiological Indicators of Problem Gambling	176
5.6.5 Alcohol and Gambling.....	179
5.6.6 Irrational Attributions	180
5.7 Summary of Most Prevalent Visible Indicators.....	181

5.8 Relative Probability of Visible Signs.....	182
5.9 Probability of PG Status as Predicted by Visible Indicators	186
5.10 Frequency of Multiple Indicators	191
5.11 Gender Differences	192
5.12 Cues Identified by Gamblers	195
5.13 Discussion and Conclusions	197
5.13.1 Main Findings	197
5.13.2 Most Commonly Reported Behaviours	199
5.13.3 Less Common Behaviours Strongly Indicative of Problem Gambling	200
5.13.4 Methodological Considerations	200
Chapter 6: Observational Study of Within Venue Behaviour.....	202
6.1 Overview.....	202
6.2 Nature and Purpose of the Observational Work	204
6.3 Methodological Principles Guiding the Field Observation Studies.....	207
6.4 Summary of Principal Aims of the Observational Work.....	209
6.5 Sampling Details for Observational Visits	210
6.6 Details of Venue Staff: SA Study	213
6.7 Findings from the South Australian Observational Study	213
6.8 Actual Sequencing of Behaviors in Longer Sessions	218
6.9 Conclusions from S.A. Observational Analysis	237
6.10 The ACT Study: Overview	239
6.11 Findings from the ACT Observational Study	242
6.12 Analysis of Visible Indicators Observed in the ACT Study	242
6.12.1 Frequency, Duration and Intensity	244
6.12.2 Social behaviours	260
6.12.3 Emotional responses	265
6.12.4 Other behaviours: Irrational attributions.....	268
6.13 Conclusion	269
Chapter 7: Summary and Conclusions.....	272
7.1 Overview of Project	272
7.2 Key Findings from the Review of Policy and Regulation (Chapter 2).....	273
7.3 Key Findings from the Review of the Existing Research Literature (Chapter 3).	273

7.4 Key Findings from the Survey of Venue/ Industry Staff and Counsellors	275
7.5 Key Findings from Gambler Study (Chapter 5)	276
7.6 Key findings from Observational Studies.....	277
7.7 A Final Set of Indicators.....	279
7.8 Methodological Considerations	283
7.9 Conclusions and Future Directions.....	284
7.10 Future Research and Recent Developments	286
7.11 Final Practice Issues.....	290
References.....	293
APPENDIX A: Organisations Consulted During Research Project.....	309
APPENDIX B: Survey of regular gamblers	310
Appendix C: Survey of Industry Staff	315
Appendix D: Survey of Counsellors	323
